

Oct. 6, 1926.

355

of words between Mrs. Gibson and Mrs. Yanchuk.

Following this interview Mrs. Edwin Carpender was visited by Mrs. Brown (the egg and chicken dealer who resides near the Gibson farm and from whom Mrs. Carpender purchases eggs, etc.). In the course of their conversation Mrs. Brown mentioned the Yanchuk affair and said that Mrs. Yanchuk had told her about it. I requested Mrs. Carpender when she next saw Mrs. Brown to try to have her fix the approximate time of this occurrence.

Mrs. Brown saw Mrs. Carpender again last Saturday and at that time she said that the matter was of recent date for the reason that Mrs. Yanchuk has only lived out that way about six months.

Mr. Palzer suggested that I write this matter up for the purpose of your records.

Might I suggest that you and Mr. Palzer consider whether or not it might be advisable to get an interpreter and endeavor to get a true story from the Yanchuk woman?

Respectfully submitted:

D.T.